Some Thoughts on Matrimony.
BY JOHN SMITH.

It seems to me,—I hope I am mistaken
—but it seems to me Mr. Editor, that matrimony is getting to be considered more and more a matter of business. "We come not here to prate of hearts," say the contracting parties, at some preliminary meeting of arrangement, in the spirit of Lord Tinsel, in Knowles' play—The Hunchback. The ceremony itself consists of a few words muttered by a parson or a magistrate, a ring is given, a prayer is said,
"and there an end." Not so much as this is gone through with by some persons;
they simply contract marriage, as the law requires. Nevertheless, it is often considered becoming to give an expensive party, and to make merry over the event, the issues of which cannot be very happy, as the world goes.

Love is an emotion, which, as connected with matrimony, has lately grown out of fashion. Nay, it is vulgar. It is confined to low people, and poets. It should never be mentioned to "ears polite." When a marriage is contemplated between young persons, the question considered is, "Is it expedient?" not "Do they love one another?" And this question is not considered by parents and guardians alone, as in old comedies and farces, but by the youthful couple themselves. Whether they talk over the value of real estate and the prices
of stocks together, it is impossible to say, but there certainly would be nothing in such a conversation inconsistent with the principles, upon which they enter into a matrimonial engagement.

The truth is, we are getting "European-ized," Purity of morals and sympathy of manners are rapidly passing away with the other sturdy principles of our forefathers.— Dr. Franklin, with his Poor Richard maxims, is very little regarded by a generation
"wise in its own conceit." Native Americanism is more wanting to our political system. "We are French, English, German, Italian, anything but Yankee." In New York certain grandees, husbands and wives already have separate establishments under the same roof. "My-lord" receives her morning visitors and gives her evening parties, without "my-lord's" consent or knowledge; she has her own servants and her own carriage and horses; she lives in her own apartments
and cultivates her own acquaintances.—
"My-lord" drives his own cab, has his own groom, abides at his club, comes home two or three times a week, and when he feels so benevolently inclined, calls upon "my-lady." When the magnificent Mrs. Blank is asked after the health of Mr. Blank, her reply is—"Dear me! how should I know?—
I haven't seen him for a week."

The reader will call this an extreme case
Doubtless it is; but it springs legitimately from marriage as it is now regarded by the ultra-Unionable, no small portion of what Mr. William nonsensically called "the Upper Ten Thousand." Wrong as such a state of things may be, it shows a certain wise philosophy. People, indissolubly linked together should enjoy the happiness of actual rather than suffer the disgrace of legal separation. Silent indifference is better than worldly quarrel, and patience under misfortunes more desirable than a bootless contest with destiny.

But, in contemplating any subject, in which the general welfare is concerned, it should be looked at in a general rather than in a particular point of view. "Is matrimony, as it is now contracted, productive of happiness except to a few heartless men and women?" inquires the reader. I am constrained to answer "yes." Expediency seldom goes hand in hand with inclination;
To be resigned to one's lot is not to be happy in it. Of all institutions that which is domestic is the most amply and wisely considered; no man likes to exhibit his house's skeleton on his own steps.

The truth is, there are comparatively few marriages contracted for right reasons—
such as compatibility of temper, assimilation of tastes and equality of condition.—
That all men are born free and equal, is a dogma, which notwithstanding its absurdity and manifest untruth, may be credited: but nobody ever pretended that all men and women were born free and equal. Men of genius, from not having leisure to prosecute courtship, often marry females in an inferior grade of life. Such marriages are always unhappy. Let no man ever marry a woman, who is not worthy to be in every respect, his companion. This is an affirmative rule of great value in this matter. It is a more judicious dictate of prudence than that people, about to marry, should always look out and have enough to live upon.

I throw out these remarks as suggestions to the reader. They are more serious than jocose. They spring from melancholy facts. The institution of marriage, sanctified by love, is the highest, holiest, best; as is now observed, it should be distinguished by epiphany of a very different significance.

I do not anticipate that my views will meet with any very hearty assent. Most men are inclined to matrimony; all women are. I am not;—a frank avowal, for which I ask no praise whatsoever. Literary men serve at a shrine, the worship of which is as exclusive or should be as that of the priest-hood, in the necessity of whose celibacy, I am somewhat inclined to believe.

Nevertheless I discern great sources of happiness in the relations of matrimony, and would with poor Richard, recommend early marriages. I do not believe people are made poorer by it; children are great comfort;—a blessed is the man who hath his quiver full of them. I love the dear little creatures with all my heart, and therefore detect Malibus, and broadly dissent from Miss Martineau's doctrines of population. Nevertheless, it is not necessary for the good of mankind of society or individuals, that all should marry. Singleness of life may be as pure as singleness of heart.

Let them marry, however who wish for a companion; but let them be guided by unselfish motives, sincere affection, true respect, let them not sacrifice all the better emotions of the heart to expediency. Turn not matrimony into a mere affair of business; banish not altogether from your rules of conduct the apostle's injunction, "husbands, love your wives; wives, obey your husbands."

Oh, the boys of Number Five, They're bound to be on hand, And where the fire is hottest, "Protection" takes her stand.

By W. H. Cranston. Our bass-drummer: If he holds demands against any of us, they will speedily be settled.

By J. H. Cozzens. Our Fifer is one of the Cutters.

By W. L. Barber. Our Clarinet player: He is as sharp in trade as in music, and as polite as a Frenchman.

By J. A. Williams. Our Foreman: May he be a Rough and Ready in case of fire.

Mr. Tisdale responded that he should always be ready, but that it was not in his nature to be rough.

By J. H. Cozzens. The beverage which we use: While it refreshes us, it carries death and extinction to our enemy.

Music by the Band.

Robert S. Barker, of the Aquidneck Hose Company, regretted that he could not reply in a more appropriate manner to the complimentary toast which called him up; he was happy to see such a general manifestation of kindness among all. He gave,

May the good feeling now existing among the Fire Department continue as long as they remain on earth.

By R. J. Taylor. The "Honey Bees," a Queen in each Hive.

By O. F. Jackson. The Newport ladies: Amiable paragons of perfection.

By W. H. Cranston. Protection boys No. 5: A gallant band,—the inveterate enemy to all fire, except that of true affection.

Song "So say we all," by the whole Company.

By T. Coggeshall. Our Second Orderly: A bantam to look at, but a rooster to contend with.

By J. H. Cozzens. The Fire Department: The servants of the people, at all times subject to their call; may they in turn, be served with everything necessary for the obtaining of more complete and speedy victory over our common enemy.

By William Newton. Our live in Two-ro street: It requires new raising, for there is no lack of money.

By O. F. Jackson. The supper of which we have just partaken: It is not to be mentioned in connection with a certain other supper.

Chorus by the Company. "Oh! that supper!"

B. H. Stevens of the Aquidneck Hose Company, in answer to a complimentary toast to his Company, said that he was not accustomed to public speaking, but when officially called for, he was always on hand.

By W. Newton. In the way of eating, we have been, through every move except the crusade.

When the Military were toasted, Major Knowles was called upon. He said that it would be hard work to draw much out of him, although he was very full. He gave,

The members of the Fire Department:—May they never have any more arduous duty to perform than that which they have discharged this evening.

By Major Burroughs. Protection Company No. 5: May they always be able to knock the fire out of a building as easily as our friend Barton knocks it out of iron.

By W. H. Cranston. Our friends, the Musicians: If the wind is not all out of them, we should like to be favored with a few of their notes.

The Band performed "Hail Columbia" and "Yankee Doodle," in fine style, and were loudly applauded.

By J. A. Williams. The Fire Wardens: May they lend us their assistance on all occasions, as cheerfully as they have to night.

By Major Knowles. The Ladies:—The only incendiaries who kindle a fire that water will not extinguish.

By J. A. Williams. (Drank in silence.) Our deceased member: May his many virtues always be fresh in our recollection.

"Marseilles Hymn" by the Band.

By W. D. Willson. As our Torches failed us, our Supper filled us.

By W. L. Barber. The Firemen of Newport: As, united, they stand, so, divided, they fall.

Charlie Brown here amused the Company, by singing several of his quaint songs, accompanied by the accordion, which was played in his own inimitable style.

By a Guest. Our generous host, Mr. Horton: May his days be spared to a remote age, and his ability to prepare such suppers as this, continue to the last.

"Fireman's Song," by several of the Firemen.

By W. H. Green. The Fire Department of Newport: May what they have here witnessed to-night, stimulate them to follow the example of No. 5.

By W. L. Barber.

Oh, the boys of Number Five, They're bound to be on hand, And where the fire is hottest, "Protection" takes her stand.

By W. H. Cranston. Our bass-drummer: If he holds demands against any of us, they will speedily be settled.

By J. H. Cozzens. Our Fifer is one of the Cutters.

By W. L. Barber. Our Clarinet player: He is as sharp in trade as in music, and as polite as a Frenchman.

By J. A. Williams. Our Foreman: May he be a Rough and Ready in case of fire.

Mr. Tisdale responded that he should always be ready, but that it was not in his nature to be rough.

By J. H. Cozzens. The beverage which we use: While it refreshes us, it carries death and extinction to our enemy.

Music by the Band.

Robert S. Barker, of the Aquidneck Hose Company, regretted that he could not reply in a more appropriate manner to the complimentary toast which called him up; he was happy to see such a general manifestation of kindness among all. He gave,

May the good feeling now existing among the Fire Department continue as long as they remain on earth.

By R. J. Taylor. The "Honey Bees," a Queen in each Hive.

By O. F. Jackson. The Newport ladies: Amiable paragons of perfection.

By W. H. Cranston. Protection boys No. 5: A gallant band,—the inveterate enemy to all fire, except that of true affection.

By T. Coggeshall. Our Second Orderly: A bantam to look at, but a rooster to contend with.

By J. H. Cozzens. The Fire Department: The servants of the people, at all times subject to their call; may they in turn, be served with everything necessary for the obtaining of more complete and speedy victory over our common enemy.

By William Newton. Our live in Two-ro street: It requires new raising, for there is no lack of money.

By O. F. Jackson. The supper of which we have just partaken: It is not to be mentioned in connection with a certain other supper.

Chorus by the Company. "Oh! that supper!"

B. H. Stevens of the Aquidneck Hose Company, in answer to a complimentary toast to his Company, said that he was not accustomed to public speaking, but when officially called for, he was always on hand.

By W. Newton. In the way of eating, we have been, through every move except the crusade.

When the Military were toasted, Major Knowles was called upon. He said that it would be hard work to draw much out of him, although he was very full. He gave,

The members of the Fire Department:—May they never have any more arduous duty to perform than that which they have discharged this evening.

By Major Burroughs. Protection Company No. 5: May they always be able to knock the fire out of a building as easily as our friend Barton knocks it out of iron.

By W. H. Cranston. Our friends, the Musicians: If the wind is not all out of them, we should like to be favored with a few of their notes.

The Band performed "Hail Columbia" and "Yankee Doodle," in fine style, and were loudly applauded.

By J. A. Williams. The Fire Wardens: May they lend us their assistance on all occasions, as cheerfully as they have to night.

By Major Knowles. The Ladies:—The only incendiaries who kindle a fire that water will not extinguish.

By J. A. Williams. (Drank in silence.) Our deceased member: May his many virtues always be fresh in our recollection.

Proposals will be received at this office till Thursday, 9th of March, 1818, at 12 o'clock,
M., for furnishing the materials and replacing, in Providence River, all the Dolphins that are now or that may hereafter be destroyed; at a stated
price per Dolphin, for the term of two years.-
The Dolphin to be of the following description:
viz: The centre pole to be of sound White-oak or Chesnut timber, of twenty inches in diameter, and of thirty feet in length; to be driven by a machine, not less than ten feet, and fifteen feet if the state of the bottom will admit. The six outer poles to be of sound White-oak or Chesnut timber, twenty inches in diameter, and of twenty-two feet in length. The centre poles to be of 11 feet above the supporters, the six supporters to be six feet above water at high spring tides; to be bound together by an iron band of three inches in width, and five eighths of an inch thick, to be well and securely bolted with iron bolts, of not less than one inch in diameter. The centre pole to be twice painted white on the inside, and black
on the outside, the black to indicate the Channel
of Providence River at the place of its location.
The Dolphins to be completed in a workman-like manner, and of good materials, to the satisfaction of the Superintendent or of a person whom he may appoint to inspect and receive the same. The right to annul the contract if any unnecessary delay shall take place in replacing the Dolphins that may be destroyed, is reserved. The payments to be made quarterly.

AGENT FOR THE
CANTON & PEKIN TEA COMP
Of New York.
THIS Company, although it cannot boast of a patent, "The oldest Tea Establishment in America," does claim to have sold during the two years of its existence, more good, pure, and unmixed Teas, and at lower prices, than any other similar establishment in the United States.
The following is a list of their retail prices, which will be found to be nearly the same as those of similar Companies. The only difference they claim is in the quality of the Teas.

The Teas mentioned in the above catalogue are put up in Quarter, Half and Pound Packages, and perfectly air tight, and warranted to be well worth the price marked on the label; if they are not found to be so, they can be returned at any time and the money will be refunded.
The Canton and Pekin Tea Company, although top "Gowqua Mixture," can still accommodate their customers with it, at a price and of a quality which will bear comparison with any other.
The citizens of Newport and vicinity are respectfully invited to call at the above store, 150 Thames-st., and test the qualities of these Teas, as the company are confident, after purchasers make one trial that an extensive custom will be secured.

A DOUBLE OPERATION.
A few days since, a lady elegantly dressed entered one of the magnificent dry goods establishments in Chestnut street, and desired to be suited with a cashmere shawlsomething worth looking at--none of your fiddle-de-dee trash or trumpery knit-knacks,
but an article up to concert pitch, and soar-ing at least to $400. This was at last accomplished, when the lady, giving her name and saying she was staying with her relative, the charming wife of a celebrated dentist, ordered it brought by one of the clerks to the M. D.'s forthwith. In the mean time the lady started off to the dentist's and having introduced herself, informed the enlightened operator that she had a dear brother who was sadly a martyr to the "gothache"-that he held "foreeps" in unattainable, and "ble dread, that he invariably swooned at dogma, which notwithstanding its absurdity and manifest untruth, may be credited: but nobody ever pretended that all men and women were born free and equal. Men of genius, from not having leisure to prosecute courtship, often marry females in an inferior grade of life. Such marriages are always unhappy. Let no man ever marry a woman, who is not worthy to be in every respect, his companion. This is an affirmative rule of great value in this matter. It is a more judicious dictate of prudence than that people, about to marry, should always look out and have enough to live upon.

I throw out these remarks as suggestions to the reader. They are more serious than jokes. They spring from melancholy facts. The institution of marriage, sanctified by love, is the highest, holiest, best; as is now observed it should be distinguished by epithets of a very different signification. I do not anticipate that my views will meet with any very hearty assent. Most men are inclined to matrimony; all women are. I am not;—a frank avowal, for which I ask no praise whatever. Literary men serve at a shrine, the worship of which is as exclusive or should be as that of the priest-hood; in the necessity of whose efficacy, I am somewhat inclined to doubt. Nevertheless I discern graces, fancy, happiness in the relation, and, combined with poor light and common sense, early marriage, as it is ever kept in a comfortable, on draught or by the barrel. H. H. YOUNG, South of Town Hall.

IF Rev. B. HIBBARD'S Vegetable and Anti-Bilious FAMILY PILLS are not found to be the most convenient, the best physic you ever tried, and fully equal to any recommendation of them, you do not find that one of these pills does more good than from four to six of any other kind, every agent stands ready to receive the empty boxes and refund the money. These Pills are recommended as being without an equal in all bilious attacks, affections of the Liver, the Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels, caused by taking cold, or obstructed perspiration. They carry off the bile, cleanse the stomach and bowels, and re-open the closed pores of the body, thereby letting out the insensible perspiration through its accustomed channels, and relieving at once the internal organs. Also in old chronic affections, as Piles, Sick Headache, Rheumatism, &c. Min the Directions, which go with each box. Every agent has circulars of these Pills to give away. Half a Pill is the usual dose, though some require one Pill, or even more. Children of one year and over, one quarter of a pill, at 7 years and over, half a pill. These Pills are purely VEGETABLE, and may be taken under all circumstances, without regard to drink or diet. Agents in New York: PHILIP RIDER, R. J. TAYLOR, and C. G. C. HAZARD, n 5430

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid; Or Vegetable Hair Composition.
THE subscriber has been induced to bring this article before the public, at the request of his numerous customers, among whom are physicians and citizens of the first respectability, who have adopted its use in their families, and wish others to participate in its advantages.

The Hyperion is composed of vegetable ingredients, the secret of compounding and blending which is known solely to the subscriber. It is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture, never before attained, yet free of animal grease or essential oils. It cleanses the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action in the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which feed the hair, thereby preventing BALDNESS AND GREY HAIR. It entirely frees the skin from Scurf, Dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to grow, and changes the hardest hair into the softest, darker color, and the free use of it, imparts to a skin and hair, in a most healthy and luxurious state until the latest period of life.

Ladies will find the Hyperion a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords to dressing the hair, which, when moist with the fluid, can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls. When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair. Manufactured and for sale by WM. BOGLE, 228 Washington, corner of Summer street, Boston. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR.

Roake's Iodine Liniment.
A SAFE and certain cure for Rheumatism, either chronic or inflammatory—Paralysis, or loss of the use of the limbs, contractions of cords and muscles, and gout, it matters not of how long standing; sprains, bruises, tumors, hard swellings, and enlarged joints, yield to a few applications of this Liniment. It has been used with incredible success in serofula or king's evil, enlarged glands, disease of the spine and hip joints, the dolorous and all nervous affections. It is invaluable, and acts like a charm, stopping the bleeding of flesh wounds, and causing them to heal in a few days. It has never been known to fail curing the most stubborn ulcers or fever sores and swellings, pain across the kidneys, in the chest, side, also stiff neck, sore throat and croup. It speedily and effectually eradicates cutaneous eruptions of the skin in the form of salt rheum, erysipelas, pimples, ringworm or tetter, Barber's itch, scabhead, &c. It instantly removes toothache and headache. It extracts the pain and cures corns, bunions, chilblains, &c. Sold by R. J. TAYLOR, Agent for Newport.

CHEMICAL RESULT—A WONDER.

Brownell's Cooking Range.
THE subscriber has just completed the invention of a new Cooking Range, to which he invites the attention of the public. This Range possesses qualities for expeditious boiling and cooking that other Ranges do not, and it occupies but a small space of room. Brownell's Cooking Range has six right inch boilers, any two, or four of which, can be thrown into one, so as to admit of a large boiler; and it is provided with a set of ranges so that any size of fire can be used on it. Its oven is large, convenient of access, and having an upward draft, it bakes evenly with a small quantity of fuel. One of these Ranges is in successful operation at the store of the subscriber, subject to the examination of the public, who are invited to call and take a look at it. WILLIAM BROWNELL, June 2

Coggeshall & Bliss' Patent Cooking Range.
THE subscriber has just taken out letters patent for a new and beautiful cooking Range, to which they invite the attention of the public. This Range may be set in the ordinary fire place, and by a simple, though effectual apparatus, the throat of the chimney may in an instant of time, be opened or closed, so that the heat in summer and the fumes from cooking at all times may escape through the chimney. Wood or coal may be used, and the evil of smoking chimneys is completely remedied by its introduction. This Range is so constructed that it takes up but a small space, and yet it contains all the qualities of those which take up double the amount; and it being constructed as it is, the Boilers are brought in close proximity with the fire, and it consequently boils much sooner, and with a smaller amount of fuel, than the old fashioned Ranges, or cook stoves. It contains five boilers, four of which may be converted into two, by taking out a cross piece, and thus will admit of two large boilers at the same time. It also contains and Oven 12 inches wide by 21 deep, which cannot be surpassed for baking. The subscriber has one of these Ranges in operation at his store, where the public are invited to call and examine it, and if they will, they must at once discover its utility. He also keeps constantly on hand all kinds of Parlor, Office, and Cook Stoves, Tin Ware, &c. &c. WM. B. BLISS, Nov. 20, Feb 2-4c

GAS, GAS, GAS.
AS Gas is the order of the day, the question is who can get the cheapest; being propelled by the force of circumstances, and the great depression in the money market in Europe, I will sell fresh camphene at 67 cts per gallon, warranted to give more light, for less money than any other burning fluid in use. Purchasers may rely upon always finding fresh camphene and the price is guaranteed to be cheaper than a poorer article found elsewhere. Sold at RIDER'S 97 Thames st. Nov. 20.

READER! READER!
If you are afflicted with Bronchitis, Asthma, Obstructed or common Coughs and Colds, Spitting of Blood, Bleeding of the Lungs, Whooping cough, croup, difficulty of breathing, sore throat, hoarseness, first stages of consumption, and all other Pulmonary or Lung Complaints, DOCT. EMANUEL'S BALSAMIC LUNG AND COUGH JELLY. THE materials of this Jelly are purely vegetable and balsamic, and are the invention of an eminent physician, from whom the proprietor has purchased the recipe. It is certainly worth its weight in gold, but is put at a price to be within the reach of rich and poor. Names and residences of persons residing in the city of New York, who have been benefited or benefited by Dr. Emanuel's Balsamic Cough and Lung Jelly, when it was prepared in another form: Mr. Hiram Annetts, 113 William-st., N. Y., had for some time, a dreadful pain in his side and chest, with a hacking cough, and shortness or difficulty of breath. He used part of a bottle of Dr. Emanuel's Balsamic Lung and Cough Jelly, which perfectly cured him. Mrs. Morgan, Front-st., Brooklyn, had a very obstinate cough and cold. She tried every other remedy in vain, and Dr. Emanuel's Balsamic Lung and Cough Jelly entirely cured her. Reader, reader, let the glad voices and grateful hearts of these respectable citizens of New York, appeal to your hearts and understandings, if you are afflicted with any pulmonary complaint, cough, cold, &c. Mr. L. W. Conklin, 102 Eldridge-st. Mr. Alonzo Brown, 72 Reade-st. Mrs. Morgan, 182 Front-st., Brooklyn. Orange county, April 13th, 1846.

Dr. EMANUEL'S Balsamic Lung and Cough Jelly.
Dear Sir:—You may perhaps think my statement almost incredible. My reason for fearing so is the fact of your never recommending your Jelly for the cure of confirmed consumption, but only in its primary or first stages. I have every reason to believe that I was in its last stage; my physician told me so; my friends told me so; as well did my symptoms, for they were truly alarming; and I felt fully convinced, that unless relief was obtained, I must soon be consigned to the narrow confines of the silent grave. But by the timely use of your remedy, I still live, and again enjoy my former good health. I had, indeed, dear Sir, all the alarming symptoms you speak of as forming consumption in its worst stage; but by the use of your Jelly, I again say, I am cured. Yours, dear Sir, with great sincerity, ISAAC J. BEED.

And now, reader, having given you a plain statement, let me conjure you to pause, ere it is too late; try this Balsamic Lung Jelly—try it. I have put its price to you as low as I can afford; if you use it, and succeed in curing yourself, I shall have the gratification of having rescued another from consumption; and I hope, in return, that you will not withhold from me your name, and a statement of your cure. Dr. Emanuel's Balsamic Lung and Cough Jelly, sold by the Agent, R. J. TAYLOR, Price fifty cents a bottle, or larger sizes one dollar. Dec. 11.

MOTHER'S RELIEF.
IT is now about ten years since this medicine has been introduced to the public, and it stands unrivalled in its effects, bearing the test of the severe scrutiny of all classes, both friendly and unfriendly. It is but for one purpose—for the use of Mothers who have to pass through a sea of affliction in giving birth to mankind, not to be described. It is to you we make an appeal. It is for your especial and general good that you should make use of one bottle of the MOTHER'S RELIEF before confinement. Then you can approach the parturient chamber without feeling as if you were going to the chamber of death. You may rest assured it will still all forlorn and no one affliction. It soothes and shields from irritation and by its peculiar properties it destroys the cause of hemorrhage or inflammation that so often attend and follow the hour of parturition. It causes a sweet and natural rest, and at last facilitates the birth, so that Mothers have not to pass through such excruciating pain and distress. The Mother's Relief may be depended upon in all cases of threatening abortion where it is possible to be prevented in cases of Spasms, &c. causing frequent alarm, from two to three doses will give immediate relief. As the subject is one that cannot with propriety be fully discussed in this public manner, we invite all who feel interested to call on our agents (most of the respectable Druggists in the United States,) or on the manufacturer, and they will be furnished with a pamphlet in which they will find all the facts to form a correct opinion of its merits, and also the opinions of many physicians of eminence, and of persons who have become acquainted with its beneficial effects. CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—Ask for FARWELL'S Mother's Relief. None is genuine unless our signatures are found within the wreath of the direction that is pasted on the bottle, signed with our own hand, and over the neck of the bottle is a fac simile of our own hand writing also. By attending to the above directions, no one need be imposed upon. All orders will be promptly attended to. DR. G. A. BARTHOLOMEW, Office on the corner of Fitzhugh street, opposite the Co. Clerk's office, Rochester, N. Y. For sale in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR, sole Agent. sept. 8ly
